

銘傳大學 95 學年度轉學生招生考試

7 月 26 日第二節

(第 1 頁共 2 頁)

英文試題

(限用答案卡作答)

Multiple Choice: Choose the best answer (共 100 分, 每題 2 分)

1. Women living in the north of China cover their faces like Muslims to protect against violent _____.
A. tsunamis B. sandstorms C. typhoons D. tornadoes
2. To ____ the earth's ecology, we must find ways to live with nature, not control it.
A. deposit B. trace C. restore D. devastate
3. Since McDonald's began promoting its premium coffee several months ago, its coffee sales have increased at a double-digit _____.
A. rate B. price C. number D. amount
4. Unless China finds a way to clean up its coal plants and thousands of factories that burn coal, ____ will soar both at home and abroad.
A. manufacturing B. expenses C. fuels D. pollution
5. To attract more travelers, hotels have upgraded many of their ____ such as better beds, magnifying mirrors in the bathrooms, and so on.
A. equipment B. facilities C. furniture D. decorations
6. Dogs' keen sense of smell makes it possible to train them to ____ anything that has a unique or mostly unique odor.
A. flavor B. squeeze C. detect D. investigate
7. Many home-schoolers say they have no argument with ordinary education - it just does not ____ their lifestyles.
A. surround B. fit C. determine D. include
8. After she transferred all of her music onto Apple iPods, her music became ____ and quickly accessible.
A. suitable B. reversible C. portable D. separable
9. Studies on human hair show significant damage to UV-exposed hair, as ____ with hair that hasn't been exposed to UV rays.
A. charged B. contrasted C. competed D. contended
10. With gold prices ____ almost 50 percent over the last year, this summer's brides and grooms are looking at a much more expensive wedding than last summer's.
A. retreating B. producing C. exceeding D. surging
11. Developing countries are questioning the rights of foreigners to ____ their locally derived products.
A. exploit B. occupy C. process D. purchase
12. Environmentalists urged the U.S. government to list the polar bear as dangerous as a way to push them to control greenhouse ____ emissions, like carbon dioxide from cars.
A. effect B. waste C. garbage D. gas
13. Plans for NATO to take control of American forces in eastern Afghanistan by year's end may be ____ until early next year.
A. launched B. accomplished C. achieved D. postponed
14. In a society where drugs are scarce and treatment is expensive, a diagnosis of H.I.V. ____ is, for most people, a sentence of death. H.I.V. is the virus that causes AIDS.
A. infection B. disease C. syndrome D. injury

銘傳大學 95 學年度轉學生招生考試

7 月 26 日 第二節

(第二頁共三頁)

英文試題

(限用答案卡作答)

15. The bestseller, "The Da Vinci Code," has produced about US$400 million in ___ so far in worldwide sales.
A. income B. revenue C. print D. production
16. The characteristics of extra-virgin olive oil depend, among other factors, on the kinds of olives used and their ripeness when _____.
A. matured B. planted C. harvested D. delivered
17. In the U.S. there are about 36,000 concerts a year, and concert halls are sprouting like _____.
A. ballrooms B. chat rooms C. mushrooms D. powder rooms
18. A space tourism company is sponsoring a space fashion contest for clothes that look good in zero _____.
A. gravity B. oxygen C. ozone D. atmosphere
19. Crime and killing have spread through Iraqi society, forcing increasing portions of the middle class to _____ the country.
A. overturn B. tolerate C. defend D. flee
20. Illegal immigrants from Mexico have _____ relations between the U.S. and its neighbor to the south.
A. resumed B. secured C. strained D. maintained
21. During the civil war in Sudan, thousands of orphaned or disconnected boys wandered the African plains in a search for _____.
A. camping B. refuge C. favor D. sympathy
22. _____ mounted and police stepped up security near the legislature yesterday, on the eve of the nation's first-ever vote on whether to recall the president.
A. Tensions B. Crowds C. Mobs D. Citizens
23. Even though his health _____ him, he still pushed himself forward through willpower.
A. enriched B. strengthened C. retained D. failed
24. The historic city tries to build up its tourism industry by _____ its ties to the royal family.
A. familiarizing B. pointing C. highlighting D. limiting
25. Despite some _____ to genetically modified crops, genetically modified cotton has been so successful that it is grown all over the world.
A. protection B. sensation C. invention D. opposition
26. The movie about the serial killings in Juarez, Mexico is now in post-production, though a _____ date has not been set.
A. filming B. release C. broadcast D. programming
27. In spite of the rules that prohibit pets in restaurants, recently a number of New York restaurateurs have noticed an increase in the number of diners seeking _____ with their animals for emotional support.
A. admittance B. permission C. allocation D. attendance
28. A unique plant in Arizona _____ for only one night, then closes forever with the first rays of the morning sun.
A. spans B. expands C. stretches D. flowers
29. While there is a team of reporters in Germany, Time's _____ around the world report on how the World Cup is being viewed in their countries.
A. magazines B. correspondents C. agents D. distributors
30. Angelina Jolie, an American actress, reportedly gives one-third of her _____ to charity.
A. salary B. profits C. earnings D. savings

銘傳大學 95 學年度轉學生招生考試

7 月 26 日第二節

(第 2 頁共 2 頁)

英文試題

(限用答案卡作答)

31. Hurricane Katrina forced the ___ of hundreds of thousands of residents of New Orleans and the region.
A. escape B. disaster C. misery D. evacuation
32. Europe's oldest civilization was unearthed by ___ a couple years ago.
A. archaeologists B. climatologists C. meteorologists D. psychologists
33. The president ___ to continue the campaign against drugs.
A. addressed B. vowed C. applied D. subscribed
34. Oil and imports drive up the U.S. trade _____.
A. deal B. negotiation C. deficit D. contract
35. After the 9/11 tragedy, the CIA and the FBI reached an agreement on _____.
A. communication B. exchanges C. terrorism D. intelligence
36. Chewing gum was once banned in Singapore because of the mess it makes when not properly _____.
A. coped with B. figured out C. disposed of D. prevented from
37. The prince grew up in Sadong Palace in Seoul, where court ladies ___ him.
A. proposed to B. aimed at C. waited on D. dealt with
38. ___ long walks in search of food, they are amazed that strangers would bring them substance-free.
A. Frightened with B. Used to C. Faced with D. Settled for
39. The wind ___ in the afternoon and most of the passengers on board got sick.
A. picked up B. got along C. put out D. took off
40. Japanese Prime Minister Junichiro Koizumi is scheduled to ___ from his post when his term as president of the ruling Liberal Democratic Party expires in September.
A. play down B. step down C. put down D. turn down
41. Due to the deep differences on arms control, the two countries ___ relations many years ago.
A. broke off B. broke down C. broke up D. broke out
42. It was very cold this morning and it took me a few minutes to ___ my car.
A. brake B. pull C. start D. drive
43. My boss has gone to L.A. ___ business.
A. in B. on C. from D. with
44. He ___ only three courses last semester.
A. took B. made C. counted D. attained
45. I usually ___ grocery shopping on weekends.
A. make B. go C. get D. do
46. The solution ___ this problem is yet to be found.
A. for B. to C. of D. with
47. He ___ suicide after his wife died of cancer last week.
A. committed B. performed C. employed D. operated
48. Students are eager to ___ a lot of knowledge in school.
A. study B. learn C. request D. gain
49. You'd better ___ sunscreen to protect your skin when you go outdoors on a sunny day.
A. wear B. put C. wipe D. erase
50. You can add some pepper ___ the soup to make it tastier.
A. on B. into C. to D. in